About Me

Licensed pharmacist and medical sales representative with expertise in skincare and aesthetic products. Skilled in client education, product promotion, and digital marketing within the dermatology field.

Experience

Revanesse Canada – Medical Sales Representative
Kirkuk & Sulaymaniyah, Iraq | September 2024– august 2025

- Promoted advanced dermal filler products to dermatologists, plastic surgeons, and aesthetic doctors across two major cities.
- Conducted one-on-one clinic visits, organized training sessions, and delivered hands-on product demonstrations to boost product adoption.
- Managed the full sales cycle including order placement, follow-up, and stock coordination with clinics and aesthetic centers.
- Collaborated closely with physicians to address patient feedback, treatment preferences, and brand positioning in a competitive market.
- Built strong, long-term relationships with healthcare professionals, increasing brand visibility and loyalty in the territory.

Digital Marketing Specialist

Iraq | April 2019 – Present

- Created targeted, educational, and promotional content for skincare and beauty audiences on Instagram and other platforms.
- Planned and executed digital marketing strategies including social media campaigns, product launches, and seasonal promotions.
- Analyzed audience insights and engagement metrics to refine content direction and improve reach and conversion.
- Coordinated with designers and suppliers to maintain consistent brand visuals and tone across all online channels.

Work Experience – Aloe Skincare Brand

Iraq | January 2025– Present

- Founded and managed Aloe, a personal skincare brand offering curated products and personalized skincare advice through social media.
- Handled product selection, supplier communication, pricing strategy, and direct-to-consumer sales via Instagram.
- Responded to client inquiries, offered routine recommendations, and followed up on product satisfaction and results.
- Built a loyal online customer base through authenticity, educational content, and consistent engagement with followers.
